

A WEEK of CELEBRATIONS

THE mere fact that the Wanamaker Store has been in New York for Ten Years is of small public interest. What it has accomplisht, and what kind of a store is here today, in the old Stewart location, are matters of more

Hence our broad invitation, for you to COME AND SEE. The New Wanamaker Building, added to the old Stewart Building, presents a plant of THIRTY-TWO ACRES AREA, for Retailing. The two buildings contain features that have been called some of the most interesting "sights" of New York City. But we have provided much further for the enjoyment of those who come.

The Museum of the French Revolution

A remarkable collection of relics, documents, paintings, etc., in connection with tableaux, illustrating incidents of the French Revolution. Fifth floor, Stewart Building.

The Wanamaker Auditorium

Informal Recitals daily. Organ music alternates with piano music, including duets by pianos played by hand and the Angelus. 9:30 to 10:30, 10:30 to 11:30, 2 to 3, and 4 to 5. Second floor, Wanamaker Building.

c. The New Art Galleries

A group of new paintings from the Paris Salons of the present year and thirteen paintings of great chapters of American naval history, by Ninth floor, Wanamaker Building. The Exhibition of Bridal Gowns from Paris

A superb bridal gown, two bridesmalds' dresses and debutantes' gowns composed by Madame Havet, queen of Paris dressmakers. Third floor, Stewart Building.

Men's Fancy Sack Suits

On the street, in the office, at home or abroad, a man's appearance is a big point for or against him. In the Wanamaker Clothing Store are found many advocates to proclaim the well-drest man. The Suits start at $15 and touch all intermediate prices up to $40.

Today, we point particularly to our $25 and $30 Fancy Sack Suits, and seldom has such a splendid collection been assembled. The latest dictates of fashion are shown in every line, whether it be in the long or short coats, regular or peaked lapels, straight or rounded corners, form fitting or semi-fitting; with or without cuffs. And each suit represents the finest procurable in ready-made clothing at these prices.

The materials are handsome cheviots, worsteds and cassimeres in gray, brown and blue checks, stripes and plaids. All are lined with the best quality of serge, every shred of cloth absolutely ALL-WOOL. They show perfection to a nicety in detail and finish.

Then, too, there are the plain Blue or Black Suits at $25 and $30, which embody all the necessary attributes as desired by well-drest men and so aptly shown here to-day. Main floor, Wanamaker Building.

"Wanamaker Special" Shoes For Men, at $3.90 a Pair

In this splendid range of Wanamaker Shoes the wellinformed man finds wonderful satisfaction. In the first place, leathers and workmanship are of the character that usually cost $5 elsewhere. There is a complete range of models presenting the extremes of style, as well as the conservative shapes. Snappy models for the young man-and they are shown in sizes as small as 31-dignified shapes for middleaged men; and fullest service and comfort thruout the entire

Included in the collection are storm shoes, dress shoes and every-day business shoes, in size-ranges for all normal feet. Main floor, Wanamaker Building. $3.90 a pair.

These hats show the wide latitude accorded by Fashion this season in shapes, colors and color-combinations, in plumes, velvets and garnitures; so, while there is the inducement of special prices, there is also great opportunity
